Labour Day 2021!

Dear members,

Following the state-wide cancellation of 2020 Labour Day celebrations, I can confirm that Labour Day 2021 activities will be going ahead in Brisbane and many regional areas on the first Monday of May!

AFULE members are invited to attend your local Labour Day celebration! Labour Day gives us an opportunity to come together with our family, friends and workmates to celebrate the contributions of workers in Queensland.

Monday 3 May 2021

Members, please meet your local AFULE reps at the venues to receive you 2021 Labour Day shirt.

Unfortunately, there are some regional Labour Day festivities that will not be going ahead in 2021. These venues include – Bundaberg, Maryborough, Blackwater, Moranbah and Mackay. We fully expect these regions to be up and running again for Labour Day 2022.

If you have any questions on Labour Day festivities in your area, please speak to your local reps, call your state office on 3844 9163 or email statesecretary@afule.org.au

In Solidarity,

Mick McKittrick,
State Secretary
